NATIONAL MUSEUM

SPECIAL EXHIBITION PREVIEW

80 years ago, the 1938 Oxford University Biological Expedition to the Cayman Islands (April 17 to August 27) was the first comprehensive natural history survey of all three islands.

"A visit rendered enjoyable to the utmost by the extreme kindness and hospitality of the people, and their great willingness to cooperate in our work." –Gerald Thompson

You're invited to join us on Thursday, 17th May at 6PM for the preview of our newest exhibition, "Oxford University Biological Expedition of the Cayman Islands"
